Indiana University Southeast

General Skills & High School Volleyball Camp

June 28 - 30, 2010
and July 5 - 7, 2010

Run by Coaches
Lesley Drury Prather
and
Sarah Drury Petkovic

Lesley Drury Prather begins her second season as head coach of the IU Southeast volleyball program. Coach Prather had an impressive 28-12 record during her inaugural season.

A former student-athlete, Drury Prather played four seasons of volleyball at the University of Louisville as a middle blocker. As a two-sport college athlete, she also competed for the Cardinals' track team for three years in the high jump and heptathlon.

Louisville advanced to the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship every year she lettered for the Cardinals. During her freshman year (1998), she helped the Cardinals reach the Sweet 16.

She graduated from the University of Louisville in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Marketing and in 2005 she earned a Master of Science degree in Sports Administration from the University of Louisville.

Sarah Drury Petkovic begins her second season as assistant volleyball coach at IU Southeast.

A former student-athlete, Drury Petkovic played four seasons of volleyball at the University of Louisville from 1999-2002 as a defensive specialist and libero.

Drury Petkovic graduated from the University of Louisville in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management.

Breaking normal tradition, the end of her college volleyball eligibility was not the end of Drury Petkovic's playing career. After graduation, she played five years with the United States National Team. In 2006, she finished 4th as a libero at the World Championships. Drury Petkovic was also a member of the Pan American Cup Team from 2003-2006. She also earned the distinction of being an alternate for the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece in 2004.
