Men's Basketball Edged by St. Catharine 85-83 in Season Opener Tue, Nov 2, 2010 - [Men's Basketball]

NEW ALBANY, Ind. - In a series that has been characterized by close games that come down to the wire, the season-opener at the Southeast Activities Building between the seventh-ranked Indiana University Southeast Grenadiers and St. Catharine College Patriots did not disappoint.

The Grenadiers were edged 85-83 on a tip-in by senior center Ervin Williams off a shot by junior guard Terrance Withers at the buzzer.

IU Southeast jumped out to a 13-2 lead as St. Catharine could not hit shots from the field in the first half. The first Patriot field goal was made at the 12:54 mark by sophomore guard Justin Morris when he hit a three-pointer. Both teams were cold from the field. IU Southeast shot just 32 percent (12-37) from the field while St. Catharine shot just 28 percent (9-32) in the first half.

In the second half everything changed. The Patriots were explosive offensively and early in the second half they went on a 15-3 run to cut the Grenadiers' lead to 61-55.

The Grenadiers were led by senior guard Jazzmarr Ferguson (Louisville, Ky.) who had 27 points, seven rebounds and four assists. Junior guard Darryl Bell (Louisville, Ky.) had eleven points in the second half and went three for three from behind the three point line to lead the Grenadiers. Ervin Williams led the Patriots with 23 points and 12 rebounds.

The Grenadiers return to action on Friday, November 5 when they host the Holiday Inn Louisville North Joe B. and Denny Classic. The tournament is presented by Norton Healthcare, Fazoli's, Coca-Cola and Sam Swope. The first game begins at 6 p.m. when Miami University-Hamilton takes on Ivy Tech then the Grenadiers face Mid-Continent at 8 p.m.

Ticket prices for the event are $7 for adult general admission and free of charge for children 12 years old or younger. IU Southeast Faculty, Staff and Students will be admitted FREE of charge with UCARD.

Ferguson Lights Up Cougars with Record Setting Performance Fri, Nov 5, 2010 - [Men's Basketball]

NEW ALBANY, Ind. - The IU Southeast Grenadiers (1-1) won their first game of the young season tonight over the Mid-Continent Cougars (1-2) 114-75 with senior guard Jazzmarr Ferguson leading the way to their fourth consecutive Joe B. and Denny Classic championship.

Ferguson (Louisville, Ky.) set the Grenadiers' single-game scoring record with 46 points breaking Charlie Elders record of 43 points against Bethel College (Tenn.) during the 1975-1976 season.

Ferguson's 46 points moves him past Larry Just to No. 8 on the Grenadiers' career scoring list with 1,336 points.

The frenetic pace of the first half and swarming defense from both teams caused the offenses to sputter and turn the ball over. Mid-Continent committed 16 turnovers and IU Southeast had eight.

The Cougars ended the game with 28 turnovers. At halftime, the score was tied at 42. Ferguson took over the game on both ends. He finished the game with 46 points to go along with five assists and seven steals.

Grenadiers head coach Wiley Brown called Ferguson's night the best offensive game he has played for IU Southeast.

"Jazz is a player that can take over a game," coach Wiley Brown said. "These first two games, he has not played very good defense, You can tell that on film, but he has been scoring points. Jazz is a player that has to play both ways."

One play captured the Cougars' woeful night. Chris Tillman had a wide open lane to the basket, but missed the layup. The putback was missed by Chris Ferguson and the try off the rebound was missed Tillman again. The Grenadiers finally picked up the loose ball and Nick Gagel knocked down a three.

Though the Grenadiers dominated the Cougars, Brown sees room to improve. "We have the talent but we have to be smart with [the talent]," he said. "What I mean by that is we have to stop all the fouling. Those are silly fouls. We also have to start challenging shots."

The Grenadiers are back in action tomorrow in the second game of a doubleheader against Ivy Tech (0-1). That game begins at 3 p.m in the Southeast Activities Building. The first game begins at 1 p.m. and features Miami University-Hamilton (1-0) against Mid-Continent (1-2).

Ticket prices for the event are $7 for adult general admission and free of charge for children 12 years old or younger. IU Southeast Faculty, Staff and Students will be admitted FREE of charge with UCARD.

Grenadiers Hold Bears to 35 Percent Shooting to Win 85-68 Sat, Nov 6, 2010 - [Men's Basketball]

NEW ALBANY, Ind. - The IU Southeast men's basketball team defeated Ivy Tech (Central Indiana) 85-68 in an exhibition game as part of the fourth annual Joe B. and Denny Classic on Saturday (Nov. 5) in the Southeast Activities Building.

Since Ivy Tech (0-1) is a two-year school, the win does not count toward the Grenadiers' regular-season record.

The Grenadiers (1-1) started slowly and trailed the Bears 25-14 with 7:30 left in the first half. The first half was a struggle for senior guard Jazzmarr Ferguson (Louisville, Ky.), one day after setting the IU Southeast single-game scoring record with 46 points. He had only two points and two fouls in the first half and finished with nine points.

Senior guard Rick Bodiford (Louisville, Ky.) kept the game close with 17 points on 8-11 shooting. He finished with 19 points. Near the end of the first half, the Grenadiers offense came alive due to Bodiford's play with help off the bench from junior guard Nick Gagel (Louisville, Ky.) who had 15 points in the half and 19 overall. Gagel shot 7-12 from the field including 3-8 from three-point range.

IU Southeast went on a 17-2 run late in the first to take the lead 37-31. The Bears were able to cut into the lead and at halftime IU Southeast led 45-36.

The Grenadiers offense was much more effective in the second half though Ferguson remained quiet. The Grenadiers shot 47 percent from the field and held the Bears to 35 percent shooting.

IU Southeast will be back in action Tuesday night Nov. 9 in Cincinnati, Ohio to face the University of Cincinnati Bearcats in exhibition play. The next Grenadiers home game will be Dec. 2 against Mountain State at 7 p.m. Tickets for the exhibition game in Cincinnati can be purchased from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday Nov. 8 in the IU Southeast Athletic Office. All That Jazz

Ferguson leads Grenadiers on and off court

By Stephen Utz

In recent years, the IU Southeast men's basketball team has reached new heights of success culminating last season with a run to the Elite Eight at the NAIA Division II Men's Basketball Championship in Branson, Mo.

Much of that success is because of the play and leadership of senior guard Jazzmarr Ferguson. Ferguson, who stands six feet, one inch tall, may be slight of build, but he has taken the Grenadiers on his shoulders.

Ferguson came to IU Southeast as a great offensive player from Moore High School in Louisville with the talent to play Division I basketball. Instead, he found a better fit at IU Southeast, where he could concentrate on his game and his grades.

He developed his game not to gain the attention of big-time college coaches but to help his team.

"Jazz worked hard on his defense," said IU Southeast head coach Wiley Brown. "He knew he was going to be a great scorer because he has a high basketball IQ. All summer long Jazz was in the gym – whether he was weightlifting or working on his slides or defensive quickness. He knew from his freshman year when I came in that I was all about defense. He knew that if he wanted to play, regardless of how much he scored, he was going to have to play defense."

After two successful seasons both on the court and in the classroom, Brown told Ferguson it was the opportune time to transfer to a Division I program.

Ferguson turned him down.

“I actually felt like this was the best place for me to be,” Ferguson said. “I felt like in this day and age the same opportunities are presented at any level. I just felt like if you are good enough you will get the opportunity anywhere you are.”

Ferguson felt if he left, he would be letting his teammates down.

“The main thing was that our team had been together for two years,” he said. “We were all close, and we felt like we had a legitimate opportunity to win a national championship.”

During Ferguson’s junior year the team almost accomplished that goal. The Grenadiers finished 27-5 in the 2009-10 season, were undefeated at home, and won the KIAC conference tournament, but the team lost in the NAIA Elite Eight to Bellevue University.

This season, they have played a tough non-conference schedule with games against some of the best NAIA teams in the country such as No. 3-ranked Mountain State University and No. 4 Robert Morris College. The Grenadiers faced those opponents in back-to-back games. They beat Mountain State at home on Dec. 2 and lost to Robert Morris in Chicago on Dec. 4.

But the highlight of the non-conference season had to be Ferguson’s record-setting performance against Mid-Continent University on Nov. 5 during the fourth annual Joe B. and Denny Classic. Ferguson broke Charlie Elder’s (BA ’79, MS ’98) single-game scoring record of 43 points by scoring 46 in a 114-75 Grenadier win.

As Ferguson has continued to improve as a player, he has taken on different roles on the team. For example, he has become one of the Grenadiers’ best recruiters.

IU Southeast senior Jazzmarr Ferguson goes up for a shot against a defender.

“He has been a great recruiter for us,” Brown said. “Every single player that we have gotten to come [on a campus visit] Jazzmarr has talked to, and that is how we get our players.”

Ferguson credits his outgoing personality for making it easy to recruit new players, but the school has made it an easy sell as well.

“I am from Louisville, so the guys know me,” he said. “I was maybe a senior or a junior playing in high school when they were eighth or ninth graders, and they know what I have come from. I just let them know that [if you come here] you are going to have the opportunity to play the way people want to play, and you are going to get a fair shot.”

Ferguson is on track to graduate with a degree in psychology
